Thanks to Jerilyn Danielsen for volunteering to fill the vacancy on the Wyoming Historical Museum Commission. Thanks again to Dale Lineburg for his many years of service. And to Doni.

Thanks from Legion Post #259 to the many volunteers who turned out at 5:30 am and 4 pm to put up and retire flags at the Wyoming Cemetery. Compliments were received from folks who had been to several cemeteries and thought this was the best.

Camp Wyoming is taking reservations for their summer programs. See their website at <https://www.campwyoming.net> for full information. Covid precautions include air purifiers, partitions in cabins, small group activities, and masks inside. Outside activities will be held as much as possible.

Football games at home every Friday night this fall. When the Midland Eagles aren't on the field this fall, the Calamus-Wheatland Warriors will be. This is the first year for the Warriors and they don't have field yet.

Jones County Conservation Board Programs at Central Park – June 12th, "Seeing Salamanders" and June 19th "Animal Spotlight – Ornate Box Turtles". Summer activities can be found at <https://www.jonescountyiowa.gov/conservation/>

Vision to Learn has completed screening in Olin and Midland. See the attached for information about this important service which does vision testing of students.

Wyoming Fire Department will assume partial coverage of the territory handled by the Onslow Fire Department, beginning July 1st.

Highway 64 project – application of the final top coat of 2 inches was completed halfway from Monmouth as of Wednesday. The west end/second half will be completed by Monday. The remainder of the project will be finishing driveways and accesses and graveling the shoulders.

Highway 136 project - Detour signs on Hwy 136 continue to be covered as work in Oxford Junction on the sewer project is limited.

Wyoming Fair – July 9, 10, & 11th
