Plan on delays on Hwy 64 to Anamosa on Thursday and Friday, July 29th & 30th, due to RAGBRAI. On Friday they will travel from Anamosa to Olin Corners, south to the Hale Road and then to Oxford Junction for an extended stop until 1 pm at which time law enforcement will press them to move on. They will continue on from there to DeWitt for the overnight stop.

A Big Thank You to Jake at the Anamosa Journal/Eureka and Kim and Pete from the Monticello Express for their super coverage of the Wyoming Fair. There was information before the fair and pictures of the fair. This newsletter cannot do what these folks and their papers do. Local newspapers need your support. We learned what happens when you lose them.

You know you are old when

- you remember having the best seat for the stage shows at the Jones County Fair was on the sidehill grass on a blanket – and it was free
- you stayed nights at the fair in the bunk house and ate breakfast at the Lions stand- 6 pancakes and 3 boxes of chocolate milk
- The Wyoming, and then Midland, band played at the Fair Wednesday noon and early evening on the stage at the track.
- You are really, really, really old if you remember when the Jones County Fair was at Anamosa
