

WYOMING AREA NEWS

A service of the Wyoming Lions Club

National First Responders Day-Today. Thanks for all you do!

100's of Christmas light bulbs were checked by Wyoming Lions members on October 25th. Lights will go up on Sunday, November 14 starting at 8 am. Everyone is welcome to help. Lights will be on from November 24th through January 1st.

City and School elections, Tuesday, November 2nd, polls are open from 7 am to 8 pm. A reminder to those who vote in Wyoming that the new polling place is the Calkins Barn, lower level. Your vote might be the only sign of appreciation these underpaid or unpaid public servants receive. Please remember to vote.

Wyoming Museum pancake breakfast, Sunday, October 31st from 7 am until noon, at the Memorial Hall, $7.00 for adults, $3.00 for kids 10 years and younger. The Museum will be open. Free admission.

Nightingale Drug in Wyoming (The Prescription Shoppe) will be having a flu shot clinic on Thursday, November 4th from noon to 3 pm. Please call 563-488-3993 to schedule your appointment, or with any questions. If in need of a Covid vaccine or booster, please let Heather know.

You are really old if you can remember the last Wyoming Horse Show held on Main Street. The show ring was where Dollar General is now, the carnival was up on the main block, the stage was in front of Holly's, and the parade of all the draft horses was on Saturday night. This was 1955. In 1956, it was moved to the school, and 1957 was the first year at the present fairgrounds.

Midland is well represented at the FFA National Convention at Indianapolis this week.

-Receiving the American Degree are Brett Schoenherr, Griffin Gravel, and Kristina Agnitsch. Kristina received it for her playground project at the Wyoming Fairgrounds.

-The Midland Agronomy Team of Justin Agnitsch, Coy Petersen, Hope Saroka, and Jared Crock, they are one of sixteen teams nationally.

-The Midland Ag Issues Team have placed in the top four as of Wednesday.

From the Midland Times of October 31, 1986: Comments from Midland First graders from the Onslow Center. "What are you planning to do special for Halloween?" Josh Soper - "You know what I'm going to be? A punk rocker. I just go up and down my street. I stop at all my friends. The best treat of all is candy bars. I really like them. I don't know how many I'll get – lots I hope."

SPARKS @ Zion American Lutheran Church Wednesdays, @ 5:30 pm, with supper, singing, and lessons to follow. Ages 3 - 5th grade. Everyone is welcome. If you didn't receive an email, contact Cassi Gilson @ 319-480-4032 with any questions and to register. Volunteers are always needed.

You don't have to be a Wyoming resident to get the newsletter. Anyone can sign up at wyonews@netins.net. Submit items to this same address.

We need your stories, ideas, birthdays, anniversaries, honors, accomplishments. We'll help you write or rewrite. We don't have a reporting staff to gather the information, so you are our reporters. If news is sent by mail or delivered to the city hall collection point, the name and phone number of the contact person must be included. This is required so contact can be made to clarify or certify some part of the information that was submitted. If you have news to submit please do so by 10 a.m. on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month. Thirty words or less. Please feel free to make a copy of this newsletter to share with your friends or neighbors who do not have email.
