A reminder of and caution concerning the Great Iowa Treasure Hunt. The Treasure Hunt is legitimate and you should check it out for yourself and for family and friends. Make sure that you are on the correct site. If not, you may find some service offering to do the search for you and charge a fee. The Treasurer of State charges no fee for the return of your money. A family name check found 47 matches across the state of Iowa. Of those, 9 are direct family members. The site to find the search is: iowatreasurer.gov/for-citizens/great-iowa-treasurer-hunt. Or, just search for Treasurer, State of Iowa and there will be a link.

Mystery of the bicycles. Recently, two quality bikes were left in the Wyoming Methodist Church. One is new and the other like new. The Church has no information as to what was intended for the bikes and would like for whomever left them to contact Virginia Pace. They were not reported as being stolen.

Old minds are like old horses; you must exercise them if you wish to keep them in working order. - John Adams

Midland Council of Churches is hosting Lenten Services, Wednesdays at 7:00 pm at the Cascade Presbyterian Church on March 23rd and 30th and April 6th. Refreshments and fellowship after each service. The church is located at 216 Polk St., Cascade.

The playground can drive will end the first weekend of April. We would like to thank everyone who donated cans! There are just a couple items left to do to complete the playground: Install a couple of benches around the playground; and finally to plant some trees to help shade it in the summer. Again thank you for your donations and support over the last 3 years on this project! Kristina and Steve Agnitsch and the Wyoming Fair board.

Can collection and drop-off site ending – Effective April 1st the playground can collection fund-raiser will be completed. The collecting of cans at the fire station will come to an end. Do not bring cans to the station. Any organization wishing to do can collecting as a fund raiser will need to find a location.

Congratulations to Midland FFA advisor Jamie Christiansen for being awarded the Golden Owl Award for the Northeast District of Iowa. We need your stories, ideas, birthdays, anniversaries, honors, accomplishments. We'll help you write or rewrite. We don't have a reporting staff to gather the information, so you are our reporters. If news is sent by mail or delivered to the city hall collection point, the name and phone number of the contact person must be included. This is required so contact can be made to clarify or certify some part of the information that was submitted. If you have news to submit please do so by 10 a.m. on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month. Thirty words or less. Please feel free to make a copy of this newsletter to share with your friends or neighbors who do not have email.

Can you PAWS 4 A CAUSE?

The Midland National Honor Society chapter is raising money for Animal Welfare Friends in Monticello. This is our service organization for the school year. We would love your support at the Anamosa Craft Show on April 2nd (9am-2pm) at the Lawrence Community Center.

Items will include dish clothes, pot holders, bibs, picture frames, dish towels, repurposed wood decor, water bottles, dish scrubbies, wall decor, wreaths, epoxy cups, epoxy pens, wood rounds, beaded pens, holiday decor, candle melts, etched glassware, and floral arrangements.

If you are able to donate, NHS would love-

- dish scrubbie donations
- to accept monetary donations

Please drop-off at the Wyoming building.
